RADCLIFFE

RADCLIFFE is a town and parish, with three stations on the London, Midland and Scottish railway, 7 miles north-west from Manchester by road and 7 by railway, and 2½ south-south-west from Bury by railway, in the Heywood and Radcliffe division of the county, hundred of Salford, union, petty sessional division and county court district of Bury, rural deanery of Radcliffe and Prestwich, archdeaconry of Rochdale and diocese of Manchester. The town lies on both sides of the river Irwell, which is spanned by a bridge of two arches. A portion of Whitefield has been added. The Roman Watling street and the Bolton and Bury canal pass through the parish. The Local Government Act, 1858, was adopted in 1866, but under the Local Government Act of 1894 the town is now governed by an Urban District Council. The town is lighted with gas by the Radcliffe and Little Lever Joint Gas Board, established in 1846 by Act of Parliament, and electric light is supplied from works in Dale street: tramways were constructed in 1900, having been authorised by a provisional order of the Board of Trade, dated 6 August, 1900. The church of St. Mary, an ancient structure, dating from the year 1282 (although the name of Robert, parson of Radcliffe, occurs as witness to a deed about the year 1235), and built in various styles, consists of chancel, nave, aisles, transepts and a western tower containing 8 bells, hung in 1862 and recast in 1923: some of the more ancient portions of the church are of Norman date; the south transept is of the 15th century, and the tower was rebuilt in 1665, as appears from an incised date on the western face: the south transept, or "Sun" chapel, was restored in 1845 by the Rev. Nathaniel Milne, then rector: the carved oak reading desk was the gift of the Rev. Charles Beswick, rector in 1665: there are several memorial windows and some remains of ancient glass exhibiting the arms of the Radcliffe family and various crowned heads: the church contains a monument of alabaster to James de Radcliffe and his wife: the entire building was restored in 1870-3, and affords sittings for 570 persons. The register dates from the year 1558 and is in good condition. The living is a rectory, net yearly value £830, with residence, in the gift of trustees, and held since 1918 by the Rev. John Bamber M.A. of St. John's College, Cambridge.

St. Thomas' is an ecclesiastical parish, formed July 5, 1839, from that of St. Mary. The original church, erected in 1819 from a design by Wyatt, at the expense of the Dowager Marchioness of Westminster, was rebuilt in 1864 at a cost of £14,000, and is an edifice of stone in the Perpendicular style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles and an embattled tower on the south side with pinnacles 120 feet in height and containing one bell: there are memorial windows in the chancel to John M. Astbury esq. of Sand Lodge, and his son, the Rev. Charles John Astbury, incumbent of Longton, near Preston, and there are others, placed in 1891, to the Rev. Robert Fletcher M.A. vicar 1844-90: a new organ was erected in 1904 at a cost of £1,000: the church affords 1,200 sittings, of which 512 are free. The register dates from the year 1819. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £300, and residence, in the gift of the Earl of Wilton, and held since 1890 by the Rev. Heber Marks, of St. Aidan's.

The church of St. John the Evangelist, Stand Lane, erected in 1866 at a cost of £5,800, is a stone building in the Early English style, consisting of chancel, clerestoried nave, aisles, transept and a western tower with spire containing one bell: there are memorial windows to Mrs. Kay, the Lord family, Mrs. Openshaw, Mr. John Barlow and to Major-Gen. Charles George Gordon R.E. killed at Khartoum, 26 January, 1885: the clerestory windows are also stained and the transept has a window presented by the Sunday school teachers in the year 1867, and there are four others, three of which were placed in 1891, to the Rev. W. D. Carter M.A. first vicar of this church, 1862-4, and the fourth, erected by Mrs. Carter in memory of her son who fell in the Great War, 1914-18: the marble and alabaster pulpit was presented by the widow of the Rev. W. D. Carter M.A. In 1920 the transept was converted into a memorial chapel in honour of the men connected with the parish who fell in the Great War, 1914-18; the names of the men are recorded on an oak tablet surmounted by a Calvary. The church was restored in 1878 at a cost of £600, and consecrated in 1897: it affords 720 sittings, of which 344 are free. The register dates from the year 1866. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £455, with residence, in the gift of trustees, and held since 1891 by the Rev. Arthur Prince M.A. of Jesus College, Oxford.

St. Andrew's, Black lane, is an ecclesiastical parish formed May 24th, 1878, from the parishes of St. Mary and St. Thomas. The church of St. Andrew, consecrated and opened May 3rd, 1877, at a cost of £6,000, is an edifice of stone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave, transepts, north and south porches and a tower at the north-west angle containing one bell: there are 500 sittings. The register dates from the year 1878. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £380, with residence, in the gift of the rector of Radcliffe, and held since 1916 by the Rev. James Gordon Hayes M.A. of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge.

The Roman Catholic church of St. Mary and St. Philip Neri was erected, with presbytery and school, in 1877.

The Congregational chapel at Stand was founded in 1686 and has 500 sittings; there is also a Congregational chapel in Radcliffe, erected in 1848, seating 800 persons.

There are also Baptist, Wesleyan Methodist, Primitive Methodist, United Methodist and New Church or Swedenborgian chapels.

The Council offices, in Spring lane, erected in 1911, at a cost of about £15,000, is a building of red brick with stone dressings.

The Public Library, situated in Stand lane, was erected in 1907, and contains 12,000 volumes.

The Technical Schools, in Whittaker street, were erected in 1896 at a cost of £4,900, and enlarged in 1914 at a cost of £10,652.

Public Baths were provided by the Urban District Council in 1899, at a cost of £5,225.

The manufactures comprehend cotton spinning, calico printing, gingham, fustian, nankeen and check weaving; the making of small-wares, bleaching, dyeing, papermaking, iron founding, machine making and the manufacture of chemicals are carried on here.

The Market House was erected in 1851 by the Earl of Wilton. Friday is the market day.

The Bealey Memorial Convalescent Hospital, presented to the town and endowed by Adam Crompton Bealey esq. in memory of his parents, Richard and Mrs. Bealey, was opened July 9th, 1903, and contains 9 beds.

A public park of 8 acres was opened on the originally appointed Coronation Day of King Edward VII. June 26, 1902; the total cost amounted to £5,395.

Radcliffe Tower, now in ruins, was one of the most considerable manorial residences in the county: there is no precise information as to its date, but it appears that William Radcliffe, High Sheriff of Lancashire, 6 Richard I. (1194-5), was of Radcliffe Tower, as was his descendant, William de Radcliffe, usually styled "the Great William," one of the knights of the Grand Inquest of Henry IV. and ancestor of the Radclyffes, Barons Fitz-Walter and Earls of Sussex, from whom also descended the Radcliffes, Earls of Derwentwater, the last rightful holder of this title being the unfortunate 3rd earl who was executed after the abortive rising in favour of the exiled Stuarts, in 1715, when his estates were confiscated and applied to the purposes of the Greenwich Hospital for Old Seamen. The park attached to the building stretched for some distance along the vale of the Irwell.

The land on the north side of the river Irwell is, with a very small exception, the property of the Earl of Wilton, who is lord of the ancient manor of Radcliffe; this manor is noted in Domesday Book as being a royal manor, and formerly the property of King Edward the Confessor. The land on the south side belongs to the Earl of Derby K.G., P.C., G.C.B., G.C.V.O. In 1911 part of Radcliffe Urban District was added to the county borough and civil parish of Bury. The area of the parish and urban district is 2,920 acres of land and 145 of water; rateable value, £122,046; the population in 1921 was 24,759.

The population of the wards in 1921 was:—Black Lane, 8,005; Radcliffe Bridge, 7,009; Radcliffe Hall, 5,112; Stand Lane, 4,633.

The population of the ecclesiastical parishes in 1911 was:—St. Mary, 7,065; St. Andrew, 4,423; St. John the Evangelist, Stand Lane, 4,592; St. Thomas, 9,043.

RAINFORD is a township and parish, formed June 22, 1869, from the civil parish of Prescott, with stations on the London, Midland and Scottish railway, and is about 4½ miles north from St. Helens, in the Ormskirk division of the county, hundred of West Derby, county court district of St. Helens, union and rural deanery of Prescott, archdeaconry of Warrington and diocese of Liverpool. The parish adopted the Local Government Act, 1858, July 2, 1872, but by the Local Government Act, 1894, the township is now governed by an Urban District Council. The church of All Saints, erected in 1878, near the old church, at a cost of £7,052, is a building of stone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, north porch and a tower erected in 1903, at a cost of £2,350, and containing a clock and 8 bells: there are six stained windows, including the east window, presented by Joseph Robinson esq.
 of Fairfield House, Crank, and the west window, a memorial to Joseph Robinson esq.: in 1906 a lych gate was erected: in 1921 a chancel screen was erected in honour of the men of the parish who fell in the Great War; it was erected by public subscription at a cost of £600: there are 580 sittings.
 The register of baptisms and burials dates from 1718 and of marriages from 1719. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £401, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Prescott, and held since 1911 by the Rev. Arthur Edward Bass M.A. of University College, Durham, and surrogate. There is a Roman Catholic chapel, erected in 1875 and dedicated to Corpus Christi; a Congregational chapel, built in 1876, and two Primitive Methodist chapels, built respectively in 1857 and 1883.
 Rainford Urban District Infectious Diseases Hospital, formerly a farm house, was converted to its present use in 1893, and will hold 5 patients. A charity of £44, derived from land and property, was left in 1768 by Thomas Lyon, one-third of which is expended yearly in clothing the poor, one-third in educating two boys for two years and the remainder is given to the vicar. Thomas Bassett left £7 in 1832 to be distributed in clothing: Rasbotham's charity of £6 3s. 8d. was first given in 1857. The parish also receives a share of the Bispham charity.
 Tobacco pipe making, once extensively carried on, is now dying out. Rainford Hall is the seat of Mrs. Pilkington. The Earl of Derby K.G., P.C., G.C.B., G.C.V.O. is lord of the manor and principal landowner. The soil is clayey; subsoil, clay. The chief crops are wheat, oats, potatoes and green crops. The area of the civil parish and Urban District is 5,877 acres of land and 11 of water; rateable value, £20,664;
 the population in 1921 was 3,945.
 Parish Clerk, John Mills.
