

The Review

Provide a full and relevant picture here about the child/family. Discuss the reason why holding a TAF review today and what actions had been previously set, which services where to be referred to/ are already involved.

Consider the following in the review (this list is not exhaustive)

Development of the child/young person

General Health

Physical development

Speech, language and communication

Emotional and social development

Behavioural development

Identity, including self image, social presentation and self esteem

Family and social relationships

Self-care skills and independence

Understanding, reasoning, problem solving in learning

Participation in learning, education and employment

Progress and achievement in learning

Learning – aspirations

Parents and Carers

Basic care, ensuring safety and protection

Emotional warmth and stability

Guidance, boundaries and stimulation

Family and Environment

Family history, functioning and well-being

Wider family (details of siblings, other significant adults, if a child lives/visits with another family member)

Housing, employment and financial considerations

Social and community elements and resources