3. The following screen should be displayed. When you are ready, and please bear in mind that the tests are timed, click on the "Begin test" button.

4. You should then be presented with a screen showing the first of 24 questions, a screen that looks something like the one below.

5. Follow the on screen instructions on answering the questions until you've fully completed the test. Then click on the "End Current Test" button.

6. You'll then see a screen like this. Click on the "Reveal Answers" button.

7. The following screen is displayed. You can now go through the entire test to check where you got answers right or wrong. Or, you can click on the red crosses to check on just those questions that you failed to answer correctly, to find what the answer should have been. When you've finished you can click on the "Click here to go back to Dashboard" link at the top of the screen.

8. Then you'll see a screen like this. It looks like the opening screen in step 2 (above) except that it also shows your test history at the bottom of the page. Each test you take will be recorded so that you can keep a check on your progress.

The screenshot shows the GoCitizen.co.uk dashboard. At the top, there is a navigation menu with 'Dashboard', 'Learning Games', 'Study Materials', 'FAQs', and 'Account'. The user is signed in as 'risbury@hotmail.co.uk' with a 'Sign out' link. A notification banner says 'New! You can now hear the questions. Prefer listening to reading? Tick the 'Enable voice over for test questions?' box in the Account tab. A listen button will show at the bottom of each question.'
