RAMSBOTTOM.

RAMSBOTTOM is a manufacturing town, situated mostly in the township of Tottington Lower End, parish of Bury, Hundred of Salford, diocese of Manchester, and in the electoral division of South East Lancashire. It is a station on the East Lancashire section of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, 4 miles N. from Bury, $13\frac{1}{2}$ N. from Manchester, 8 from Bacup, 8 from Accrington and 7 by road from Bolton. Seated on the river Irwell, it has a plentiful supply of water, which, with the establishment of railway communication, has contributed largely to the advancement of the place in commercial importance. Cotton spinning and manufacturing is carried on here very extensively; there are also calico printing and bleaching works, woollen mills, paper mills, iron and brass foundries, &c. The Messrs. Ashton first introduced the cotton trade into the neighbourhood at the commencement of the present century, and Sir Robert Peel, the first baronet, established the business of calico printing here, and his extensive works were for many years carried on by his successors, the eminent firm of William Grant and Brothers. The premises once occupied by Mr. Yates, of the firm of Peel, Yates and Co., were converted into the commodious Inn, now called Grant's Arms, by William Grant, Esq., who was a munificent patron of the place, and whose large print works are now used for bleaching and finishing purposes.

The town is governed by a Local Board, formed in 1864. It consists of 12 members, whose meetings are held in the board room, Garden Street. Lawrence Stead, Esq., is chairman of the board, and Mr. William H. Belshaw, clerk. The streets are lighted by 120 public lamps. The Gasworks are situated at Stubbins, and were established in 1854. They consist of four holders, with a capacity of 520,000 cubic feet of gas, which is sold to consumers at 3s. 11d. up to 4s. 6d. per 1000 cubic feet, according to the quantity consumed. The capital was £46,500, raised in shares of £10 each. Mr. Christopher West is manager, and Mr. Francis Barrett, secretary. The inhabitants are supplied with water from the works at Bury. The Cemetery situate at Hazlehurst, was opened for interment in 1875. It contains eight acres purchased for about £1,600, and there is a division each for the Church of England people, the Nonconformists and the Catholics. As yet, there are no mortuary chapels, and the burial service is conducted in the Registrar's house.

St. Paul's Church is an elegant stone building in the Early English style of architecture, erected in 1850 from a design by Mr. I. Holden, at a cost of £3,500, the site and £1,387 towards its erection being given by the Messrs. Ashton. The church was enlarged in 1866 at a cost of about £1,000. It contains 783 sittings of which 426 are free. The benefice is a vicarage of the annual value of £300, in the patronage of the Crown, and the Bishop of Manchester alternately, and held by the Rev. William Henry Corbould (surrogate). The population of the parish in 1871 was 4,204. The schools attached to this church were much enlarged in 1868, and will accommodate 700 children. St. Andrew's Church is a handsome Gothic edifice, with a tower surmounted by pinnacles, and the interior is beautifully decorated. It was built as a Presbyterian place of worship by William Grant, Esq., in 1832-4, but was transferred to the Church of England, and consecrated in 1875. It contains 350 sittings, all of which are free. The living is a perpetual curacy of the annual value of £200, in the patronage of Mrs. Isabella Lawson, and held by the Rev. Henry William Jones. Population of the parish in 1871, 1,000 souls. Service is held in Nuttall School, on Sundays, conducted by the Rev. H. W. Jones. St. Joseph's Catholic Church, now approaching completion, occupies a site adjoining the present temporary chapel. It is a handsome stone edifice in the Early English style of architecture, and is capable of seating 600 persons, and the cost of its erection is about £4,000. The foundation stone was laid by Dr. Vaughan, Bishop of Salford, September 27th, 1879, and the building will, it is expected, be opened in August this year (1880). The mission was first established in 1862, and the Catholic population amounts to 1,210 souls. Rev. Bernard Gustave De Mullewie, priest. St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Bolton Road, is a handsome Gothic edifice, erected in 1873, at a cost of £7,000. Rev. W. H. Elliot, minister. The Wesleyans have a large chapel situate in the Market Place, and the Primitive Methodist Chapel is in Bridge Street. The United Methodist Free Church have a chapel at Patmos. The Baptists have a neat stone chapel in Bolton Street, erected in 1861, and now under the ministry of the Rev. Robert Maden. There are Independent Chapels at Stubbins and Park; the former being in Edenfield district, and the latter in Walmersley. The Public Library, Market Place, was established in 1838. It contains upwards of 1,200 volumes. Mr. Joseph Hebden, librarian. The Manchester and Liverpool District Bank has a branch here. The 57th L.R.V. (3rd Administrative Battalion) have their head quarters in Bolton Street. The Liberal Club occupies a handsome building in Buchanan Street, recently erected. William Rumney, Esq., is president, and Mr. Cunliffe is secretary. The Conservative Club is held in the Market Place. Henry Stead, Esq., is president, and Messrs. J. K. K. Stead and W. B. Turner are honorary secretaries. In connection with the Co-operative Society is a library of upwards of 1,700 volumes, and science and art classes, and also elementary classes are held in the Science and Art School, Ramsbottom Lane. St. Andrew's British School was built in 1872, by William Grant, Esq., at a cost of £2,000. Day and Sunday Schools are also in connection with most of the principal places of worship. In the town are a Temperance Society, a Band of Hope Union, and a Cricket Club. Fairs are held on April 28th, and the first Monday after the 27th of August.

HOLCOMBE

Is a village in the township of Tottington Lower End, and is contiguous to the town of Ramsbottom. It stands on an eminence, and from the tower erected on its summit in 1851-2, at a cost of £900, to the memory of the late Sir Robert Peel (second baronet), are obtained some extensive and pleasing views of the surrounding country. The ancient parochial chapel, which existed in 1662, was taken down several years ago, and the present handsome church was opened on the 8th of April, 1853, the cost of its erection being £2,226. It is dedicated to Emmanuel, and consists of nave, chancel, and north transept, with a lofty spire at the west end. There are 350 sittings, of which 140 are free. The benefice is a rectory of the annual value of £175, with residence, in the patronage of the rector of Bury, and held by the Rev. Henry Dowsett. The population of the parish in 1871, was 2,981. Service is also held in the School-Chapel, Hawkshaw Lane, in which there is accommodation for 350 persons. The Wesleyans and the United Methodists have each a chapel in Hawkshaw Lane, and the latter body have also a place of worship in Holcombe village.

SUMMERSEAT

Is a village situated in the three townships of Tottington Lower End, Elton, and Walmersley, and is a station on the East Lancashire line of railway, about $2\frac{1}{4}$ miles from Bury, and 1 mile from Ramsbottom. The Wesleyan Chapel is a handsome Gothic edifice erected at a cost of nearly £5,000. It possesses accommodation for 800 persons. There is in connection with it a good school, erected in 1864-5 at an expense of £2,500 ; Rev. Joseph Finnemore, minister. The Primitive Methodists have a preaching room here. In the village is a News and Reading Room, and at Brooks Bottoms is a Working Men's Club. Here is also an extensive cotton mill, which is an elegant and well-built structure recently erected. It gives employment to a considerable number of people, and is occupied by the firm of Messrs. Joshua Hoyle & Sons, Limited.

Post Office at Mr. John Whitehall's. Letters arrive via Bury, 6-2 a.m., and 5-40 p.m. ; and are despatched 10-30 a.m., and 8-7 p.m.

EDENFIELD

Is a pleasantly situated village in the township of Tottington Higher End, 2 miles from Ramsbottom, and 5 miles from Bury. The township extends over an area of 3,545 acres, and its population in 1851, was 2,958; 1861, 3,726; and in 1871 3,595. The rateable value amounts to £22,286. The whole district is picturesque and interesting, and in the neighbourhood are several stone quarries. The Church dates from 1614, but it was rebuilt in 1778, and has recently undergone considerable repairs. It contains 739 sittings, of which 246 are free. The benefice is a vicarage of the annual value of £300, with residence, in the gift of the rector of Bury, and held by the Rev. James Pearse Yeo. Population of the parish in 1871, 3,483. The Congregational Church at Stubbins is a beautiful edifice in the perpendicular style of architecture, with groined roof springing from small detached columns with carved capitals. At the south-west corner, a graceful spire rises to the height of 120 feet; and the five-light tracery window, filled with stained glass, is a memorial gift from James Porritt, Esq. The church was opened in 1867, and is built of white freestone, presented by the Messrs. Porritt, of Stubbins Vale; the number of sittings is 750. Rev. Thomas Cain, minister. The large Day and Sunday School attached will accommodate 600 scholars. The Wesleyan Chapel, is a handsome building in the Grecian Doric style of architecture, erected in 1878 (superseding an older building), at a cost of £3,100, exclusive of site. It possesses accommodation for 540 persons. A handsome Sunday School has also been erected by this body, at a cost of £1,600. The Primitive Methodists have also a chapel here.

Post and Money Order Office at Mrs. Ann Tattersall's. Letters arrive via Bury 8 a.m. and 4-30 p.m.; and are despatched to Manchester at 9-45 a.m., and to Bury and all parts 7-15 p.m.

WALMERSLEY-WITH-SHUTTLEWORTH

Is an extensive township on the east bank of the Irwell, extending from about two to five miles from Bury. It contains 5,065 acres, and its rateable value amounts to £29,410. The population in 1851 was 4,802; 1861, 5,298; and in 1871, 5,558. In Walmersley are the remains of a beacon, probably erected in the time of Queen Elizabeth, under the influence of the threatened invasion from the Spanish armada. On a neighbouring hill a prospect tower was erected by the Grants in 1829, and a better situation could scarcely have been found. In a clear atmosphere the estuary of the Mersey, near Runcorn, is seen from this elevated station. St. Saviour's Church is a Gothic edifice with square tower, erected in 1838. It contains 677 sittings, of which 346 are free. The benefice is a vicarage, of the annual value of £270, with residence, in the patronage of five trustees, and held by the Rev. John David Evans, M.A. The population of the parish in 1871 was 2,879. At Park is an Independent Chapel of ancient date, and now under the ministry of the Rev. John Robinson. The United Methodist Free Church, at Patmos, was erected in 1836. SHUTTLEWORTH was created an independent parish under Vict. 6th and 7th, c. 37. Excellent stone for building purposes is extensively procured from the stone quarries. Whittle Pike, in this district, is 1,614 feet above the sea level. The Church, dedicated to St. John the Baptist, was consecrated February 12th, 1848. Its style of architecture is that which prevailed in the 14th century, and the cost of its erection was £2,499. It contains 413 sittings, of which 284 are free. The benefice is a vicarage, of the annual value of £160, in the patronage of the Crown and Bishop alternately, and held by the Rev. Edwin Dyson. Population of the parish in 1871, 3,270. The Baptists have a chapel in Bank Lane, and here also is a Mechanics' Institute, pretty well patronised.
