AINSWORTH,

A township in the parish of Middleton, contains 1,908 acres. Its population in 1851 was 1,781; 1861, 1,803; 1871, 1,854; and 1881, 1,726. The rateable value is £8,170. The Earl of Wilton is the principal owner of the soil, but James Kenyon, Esq., Messrs. Bolton, and Joseph Tootill, Esq., have also estates here. This township gave name to a local family of considerable antiquity. The Abbey of Cokersand possessed land here granted by King John. The village of Cockey Moor is in this township; and here Christ Church is situated. It dates from 1580, but was re-built in 1832. It contains 580 sittings, of which 262 are free. The benefice is a vicarage of the annual value of £200, in the patronage of the rector of Middleton, and held by the Rev. Robert Macdonnell Evanson, M.A. The Rev. Geo. Edward Roberts, is curate in charge. Service is also held in the National School, Bury New road. The Unitarian Chapel, Cockey Moor, is a picturesque looking building, erected in 1715. It was enlarged in 1773, and considerably repaired in 1845. Rev. Robert Wilkinson, minister. Here is also a Methodist New Connexion Chapel.

BIRTLE-CUM-BAMFORD

Is a township in the parish of Bury, and hundred of Salford. It contains 1,429 acres, and the rateable value is £9,421. Its population in 1851 was 1,850 ; 1861, 2,329 ; 1871, 2,577 ; and 1881, 2,265. The cotton and woollen trades give employment to a considerable number of the inhabitants. St. John the Baptist's Church, Birtle, was erected in 1845-6, at a cost of about £1,600. The ecclesiastical district comprises the hamlet of Birtle, and portions of the townships of Bury, Heap, and Walmersley, containing a population of 2,155. The Church contains 450 sittings, of which 270 are free. The benefice is a vicarage of the annual value of £157, in the patronage of the rector of Middleton, and held by the Rev. Thomas Wilson. St. Michael's School Chapel, Bamford, has accommodation for 300 persons, and the population of the district is 1,864. The value of the living is £150, and is in the patronage of the Bishop of Manchester, and held by the Rev. J. C. Butterworth. The Congregational Chapel, Bamford, erected in 1801, has been replaced by the present edifice, built in 1842, and which about two years ago was enlarged, at a cost of £500. There are tablets to the memory of various members of the Fenton family, and to a predecessor of Sir U. J. Kay-Shuttleworth. John Fenton, who is buried here, was the first representative of Rochdale in the House of Commons, on the passing of the Reform Act of 1832. The Wesleyans and United Methodists have each a chapel here, the former erected in 1882, and the latter in 1864. At Bamford is also a Working Men's Club, opened in 1876.

EDENFIELD

Is a pleasantly situated village in the township of Tottington Higher End, 2 miles from Ramsbottom, and 5 miles from Bury. The township extends over an area of 3,545 acres, and its population in 1851, was 2,958; 1861, 3,726; 1871, 3,595; and 1881, 3,926. The rateable value amounts to £24,137. The whole district is picturesque and interesting, and in the neighbourhood are several stone quarries. The Church dates from 1614, but it was rebuilt in 1778, and has recently undergone considerable repairs. It contains 739 sittings, of which 246 are free. The benefice is a vicarage of the annual value of £300, with residence, in the gift of the rector of Bury, and held by the Rev. James Pearse Yeo. Population of the parish in 1881, 3,958. The Congregational Church at Stubbins is a beautiful edifice in the perpendicular style of architecture, with groined roof springing from small detached columns with carved capitals. At the south-west corner, a graceful spire rises to the height of 120 feet; and the five-light tracery window, filled with stained glass, is a memorial gift from James Porritt, Esq. The church was opened in 1867, and is built of white freestone, presented by the Messrs. Porritt, of Stubbins Vale; the number of sittings is 750. Rev. Thomas Cain, Minister. The large Day and Sunday School attached will accommodate 600 scholars. The Wesleyan Chapel is a handsome building in the Grecian Doric style of architecture, erected in 1878, superseding an older building, at a cost of £3,100, exclusive of site. It possesses accommodation for 540 persons. A handsome Sunday School has also been erected by this body, at a cost of £1,600. The Primitive Methodists have a neat chapel erected in 1881, in lieu of an older edifice. It is Gothic in style, from designs by Mr. J. Mould, of Bury. It will seat 360 persons. Adjoining is a Sunday School erected at the same time, the cost of both buildings being £2,500.

Post and Money Order and Telegraph Office at John Darwin's. Letters arrive via Bury 7 a.m. and 4-15 p.m., and are despatched to Manchester at 9-45 a.m., and to Bury and all parts 7-15 p.m.

SUMMERSEAT

Is a village situated in the three townships of Tottington Lower End, Elton, and Walmersley, and is a station on the East Lancashire line of railway, about 2½ miles from Bury, and 1 mile from Ramsbottom. The Wesleyan Chapel is a handsome Gothic edifice, erected at a cost of nearly £5,000. It possesses accommodation for 800 persons. There is in connection with it a good school, erected in 1864-5, at an expense of £2,500; Rev. John Pollitt, minister. The Primitive Methodists have a preaching room here. In the village is a News and Reading Room, and at Brooks Bottoms is a Working Men's Club. Here is also an extensive cotton mill, which is an elegant and well-built structure recently erected. It gives employment to a considerable number of people, and is occupied by the firm of Messrs. Joshua Hoyle & Sons, Limited.

Post Office at Mr. John Whitehall's. Letters arrive via Bury, 6 a.m. and 5-40 p.m.; and are despatched, 10-30 a.m. and 8 p.m.

Walmersley-with-Shuttleworth

Is an extensive township on the east bank of the Irwell, extending from about two to five miles from Bury. It contains 5,065 acres, and its rateable value amounts to £35,921. The population in 1851 was 4,802; 1861, 5,298; 1871, 5,558; and 1881, 5,519. In Walmersley are the remains of a beacon, probably erected in the time of Queen Elizabeth, under the influence of the threatened invasion from the Spanish armada. On a neighbouring hill a prospect tower was erected by the Grants in 1829, and a better situation could scarcely have been found. In a clear atmosphere the estuary of the Mersey, near Run-corn, is seen from this elevated station. A church, dedicated to St. Saviour, was erected in Walmersley in 1838; but this has been entirely pulled down, and the present handsome edifice erected in its stead. It was consecrated by the Bishop of Manchester on the 19th September this year (1883). It is in the early English style of architecture, from designs by Messrs. Maxwell & Tuke, of Bury; is cruciform in plan, with nave, aisles, north and south transepts, chancel, organ chamber, vestries, and tower. The cost without the tower was about £5,000. A splendid organ was presented by Mr. James Jardine, of Manchester, who also gave a fine stained-glass window. Another similar window was presented by the executors of the late Mr. Hall, of Nangreaves, and three others by Mrs. Nuttall and the Misses Chadwick. The window at the east end was replaced here from the old church. The church will seat about 700 persons. The benefice is a vicarage of the annual value of £270, with residence, in the patronage of five trustees, and held by the Rev. John David Evans, M.A. Population of the parish in 1881, 2,637. Service is also held at the school, Buckhurst, by the vicar of Walmersley. At Park is an Independent Chapel, erected in 1798, and rebuilt in 1866; but the original building dates from 1664, it being the first chapel erected in Walmersley. The Sunday school was formerly taught by ancestors of Sir U. J. Kay-Shuttleworth, who are buried in the chapel, and to whose memory two fine tablets are erected. John Kay, who resided at Park Farm, invented the fly shuttle. Rev. Henry Banks is the present pastor. At Pigslee is a Conservative Club, formed in 1881. The Methodist Free Church at Patmos was built in 1836, and rebuilt in 1874. SHUTTLEWORTH was created an independent parish under Vict. 6th and 7th, c. 37. Excellent stone for building purposes is extensively procured from the stone quarries. Whittle Pike, in this district, is 1,614 feet above the sea level. The church, dedicated to St. John the Baptist, was consecrated February 12th, 1848. Its style of architecture is that which prevailed in the 14th century, and the cost of its erection was £2,499. It contains 413 sittings, of which 284 are free. The benefice is a vicarage, of the annual value of £160, in the patronage of the Crown and Bishop alternately, and held by the Rev. Edwin Dyson. Population of the parish in 1881, 3,423. The Baptists have a chapel in Bank Lane; and here also is a Mechanics' Institute, pretty well patronised.

PILKINGTON

Is an extensive township in the parish of Prestwich, and it contains the villages or hamlets of Whitefield ($6\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Manchester), Stand, Stand Lane, Unsworth, Hollins, Besses o' th' Barn, Outwood, and Ringley. Its population in 1851 was 12,363; 1861, 12,303; 1871, 11,949; and 1881, 13,144 souls. The area of the township is 5,469 acres, and its rateable value amounts to £68,645. The most thickly inhabited portion of the township is governed by the Whitefield Local Board, formed in 1866, and which consists of twelve members, whose offices are in Elms Street.

The knightly family of Pilkington were seated at Pilkington Tower, or Stand, in this township, soon after the conquest. They were not, however, the chief lords of this manor, for it appears that Roger de Pilkington, in the reign of John, or Henry III., was found to hold the fourth part of a knight's fee, of the fee of Thomas de Gretley, who then held it under the Earl of Ferrers, the King's tenant in chief. In the reign of Edward III., Henry de Lacey had a bovate of land in Pilkington, and the manor of Chadderton, with twelve acres of land in fee. In 35 Edward III., Pilkington is mentioned in the inquisition taken on the death of Henry, Duke of Lancaster, as a fee of the honour of Tuttebury. Stand Hall is now the residence of Thomas Statter, Esq., steward to the Earl of Derby.

All Saints' Church, Stand, occupies a commanding position, and can be seen for several miles round. The foundation stone was laid by the Earl of Wilton, August 3rd, 1822, and the building was consecrated by Dr. Bloomfield, the then Bishop of Chester, September 8th, 1826. The style of architecture is that of the fourteenth century. The Church contains a nave and side aisles with spacious galleries, and at the west end of the nave is an open arcade, with noble arched entrance, from which a lofty tower rises to the height of 186 feet. The entire cost of the church, exclusive of site, which was presented by the Earl of Derby, was £14,987. Considerable alterations have recently been effected in the interior, especially in the chancel, which has been enlarged by the addition of a choir and clergy vestries. A new reredos has been presented by Mr. George Richardson; the organ has been removed here from the west gallery; and two memorial stained windows have been put in. A geometrical stained window has also been placed in the west gallery, which, along with the north and south galleries, have been re-pewed. The cost, exclusive of windows, &c., was £1,400. The church contains 1,860 sittings, of which 960 are free. The benefice is a rectory of the annual value of £380, in the patronage of the Earl of Wilton, and held by the Rev. George Rudd. The population of the parish in 1881 was 5,387. St. George's Church, Unsworth, is a plain edifice erected in 1730, and re-built in 1843. It contains 472 sittings, of which 400 are free. The benefice is a perpetual curacy of the annual value of £240, in the patronage of the rector of Prestwich, and held by the Rev. Benjamin Crompton, M.A. Population of the parish in 1881, 2,024. St. John the Evangelist's Church, Stand Lane, is mentioned in the description of Radcliffe. St. Saviour's Church, Ringley, was erected in 1626. It was re-built in 1854, from a design by Mr. E. G. Paley, at a cost of £2,500. It contains 560 sittings all of which are free. The benefice is a perpetual curacy of the annual value of £250, in the patronage of the rector of Prestwich, Bury, and Middleton, and held by the Rev. James Potter, B.A. Population of the parish in 1881, 1,588. The tower of the ancient edifice is still standing, and it bears the inscription—"Nathan Walworth builded mee Anno Do., 1627." The Unitarian Church, Stand, is a prettily situated building, and dates from 1695. It was renovated in 1818. Rev. W. C. Squier, minister. Here is a Grammar School founded in 1688. Rev. W. C. Squier is head master. The Wesleyan Methodists have a neat chapel at Unsworth, built in 1847. The Primitive Methodist Chapel is situate at Chapelfield; and here also is an Independent Chapel, dating from 1665. Rev. Alexander Anderson, B.A., pastor. The Independents have another Chapel at Besses o' th' Barn. The New Jerusalem Church is also situated at Besses o' th' Barn. It was enlarged this year (1883), and is a neat brick edifice with stone dressings. Rev. Isaiah Tansley, pastor. There are several elementary schools in the district; and that in connection with All Saints' Church is situate in Elms Street, and was erected in 1874. The Conservative Club is also situate in Elms Street. At Hollins is a well patronised Institute.

Whitefield is now connected with Manchester and other important places through the formation of the line of railway through the district, and which was opened for traffic September 1st, 1879. The district is lighted with gas by the Radcliffe and Pilkington Gas Company, and supplied with water from the Bury Waterworks. The acreage of the Local Board district is 2,025 acres, and the population is about 9,500 souls. The Jews' Cemetery, situated in this township, is enclosed by high brick walls. Stand Grammar School possesses an endowment, consisting of a messuage and four acres and a half of land in Whitefield, being a bequest of Henry Siddal, tailor, of that place. Ringley School has an endowment, consisting of a messuage and one hundred and twenty acres of land, bequeathed by Nathan Walworth. There is also a bequest of £50 to Unsworth School, by James Lancashire.

Post Money Order. and Telegraph Office, 245, Bury New road, Whitefield; Samuel Hulme, postmaster. Letters arrive via Manchester, 6-20 a.m., 1-0 p.m., and 4-36 p.m., and are despatched 10-40 a.m., 2-30 p.m., and 8-15 p.m.

Post Office, Besses o' th' Barn; John Barlow, postmaster.

Marked 1 are at Whitefield, 2 at Unsworth, 3 at Besses o' th' Barn, 4 at Hollins, and the rest where specified.

A portion of the township, comprising STAND LAND and CHAPELFIELD, is included with Radcliffe.

RADCLIFFE.

This town is situate on the Irwell, and is a station on the East Lancashire line of railway, two and a half miles S.S.W. from Bury, and seven miles N.N.W. from Manchester. It is progressing rapidly, and bids fair, owing in some measure to the great variety of trades carried on, to become a town of considerable importance. The
